

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used, disclosed and how you can access this information.

Your Rights: When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

- 1) Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record: You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
- 2) Ask us to correct your medical record: You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
- 3) Request confidential communications: You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.
- 4) Ask us to limit what we use or share: You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.
- 5) Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information: You can ask for a list of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.
- 6) Get a copy of this privacy notice: You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.
- 7) Choose someone to act for you: If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
- 8) File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated
 - You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting Clark County Combined Health District’s Privacy Officer, the Nursing Director at (937) 390-5600 or health@ccchd.com. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
 - You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting <https://www.hhs.gov/hipaa/filing-a-complaint/complaint-process/index.html>

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions. In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes, sale of your information, most sharing of psychotherapy notes

Our Uses and Disclosures: How do we typically use or share your health information?

- 1) Treat you: We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you. Example: We may disclose your health information as necessary to a pharmacy when we order a prescription for you.
- 2) Run our organization and for regular health operations: We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. Examples: We may use your immunization record to assure your healthcare provider or your school that you are complying with required or recommended vaccines. We will share results of a head lice check with the school or agency when the purpose is to establish compliance with school/agency policy.
